TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

GRASS TRAMPLERS.

Jake Coxe and Carl Browne
Are Found Guilty

Of Walking on Congress' Pretty
Grass Plot,

Also of Carrying Banners in Its Front Yard.

THE JURY WENT OUT

And Came Back Soon With the Verdict.

Congressman Lafe Pence Makes Concluding Speech.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Congressman Lafe Pence, of Colorado, faced the police court jury today to make closing argument in behalf of the commonwealers. Carl Browne had changed the suit he wore yesterday for the accustomed garb of buckskin decorated with silver filigree for buttons. "General" Coxe pulled his monocle rather nervously and Christopher Columbus Jones looked solemn.

Several Populist congressmen were within the bar and several prominent attorneys had dropped in to hear Mr. Pence. He began by telling the jury that no one who had heard the evidence expected a conviction; no one wanted a conviction except the police officers, who had interested themselves in the case.

"Mr. Coxe came to ask for the enactment of laws," said Mr. Pence, "which he believes and thousands of others believe with him, will be of inestimable advantage to the unemployed of the country." Coxe's plan might be most foolish or the most wise of all plans for relief from the present state of affairs. He had come to present it peaceably at the head of an orderly body of American citizens, and had as much right to petition Congress as anybody else.

How Paid Lobbyists are Treated.

Representatives of large interests coming here as paid lobbyists to corrupt congress met with a warm welcome, but were the men who came barefooted, tramping through the snow, led by a man who had the courage of his convictions to be invited to the open doors of a jail built through taxation upon the citizens? He commented upon the fact that for the first time this term the district attorney himself, the representative of the attorney general had come into police courts to prosecute a case, thus showing that the administration was behind the prosecution.

"Tomorrow Mr. Coxe, a free man by your verdict," said Mr. Pence, "will appear before the labor committee of congress, under the resolution of Mr. Bell of Colorado to devise means for giving work to the unemployed and will present his arguments quietly and peaceably and will be listened to more attentively than any paid lobbyist I can assure you.

Coxe in History.

"Whatever shall be written of the Coxe movement when it becomes as it will become, a part of history, let it not be said that twelve citizens of Washington branded this honest, well meaning patriotic man as a criminal."

District Attorney Birney who is a mild speaking man and grand old of the abolition candidate for the presidency, followed with a calm discussion of the case. He spoke of the senator from Nebraska looking far over the heads of the jury to talk to a constituency on the distant prairie, the member for Kansas talking to the cornfields of his state and the gentleman from Colorado talking to an open mouthed constituency.

Judge Miller charged the jury, seeking to impress upon them the fact that there was no other issue before them than that of whether defendants violated the law by seeking to collect a crowd upon the capital grounds.

The jury retired at 1:35.

At 3:50 p. m. the commonwealth jury returned to the court room and at their request, Judge Miller read the instructions of the defense to them, after which they retired.

Found Guilty.

The jury in the Coxe case has returned a verdict finding Coxe, Browne and Jones guilty of carrying banners in the capital grounds, and on the second charge—walking on the grass of the capital grounds—Coxe and Browne guilty; Jones not guilty. Motion was entered for a new trial.

GEN. RANDALL ARRESTED.

Put Into Jail for Marching Into the Town of La Porte.

LA PORTE, Ind., May 8.—Gen. Randall and his officers are in jail here having marched into the city contrary to orders of authorities. The Randall army and the rebels under Sullivan arrived at the city limits today and were met by a large force of deputies under Sheriff Freshie and ordered to march around the city.

This order was under the sanction of the city authorities who at a special meeting last night resolved to keep the armies outside the city if possible, promising them provisions if they did so; if they refused they were to be quartered in the fair grounds and ousted as soon as possible. The Sullivan army acquiesced in the officer's request, and is camped a mile south of town.

The Randallites refused and acting on their general's encouragement insisted on entering the city. Thereupon the entire staff including Gen. Randall, was arrested and is now in jail awaiting trial. Mayor Scott has promised the general that his army will be furnished supplies if they will move on, and it is probable they will comply. Meanwhile both armies are in camp awaiting the result of the trial. There is great excitement among citizens and commonwealers.

KELLY READY TO START.

His Army in Good Spirit—Food Enough For Three Days.

Des Moines, May 8.—Gen. Kelly's boats are almost completed and the army has fixed upon 9 a. m. as the time for making the start from Des Moines. They have food enough for three days. Oskaloosa will send today 1,000 loaves of bread and coffee and meat besides.

The start will be a sort of gala procession, and the army are in better spirits than it has been for several days.

PROPOSED AT BREAKFAST.

The Marquis of Waterford Makes a Scene at a Hotel.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The friends of Mary Hampton, the actress, declare she recently refused to marry Francis Beresford, Lord Tyrone, Marquis of Waterford, at the Hotel Metropole last week. It is said he first saw Miss Hampton while she was playing a part in "Aristocracy" in Washington. He followed the company from place to place and in Albany secured an introduction. One week ago he came to the Hotel Metropole, this city, and registered as "Francis Beresford, London." Louis Masson, husband of Marie Burroughs, gave a breakfast party in the ladies cafe of the hotel Saturday and invited Miss Hampton, Miss Carrie Turner, Mr. "Beresford," Mr. Jacob Hess and Senator Brown, all of whom are present. The host and Mr. Beresford had arranged to leave the city that night and the young Briton realized that he might never again see Miss Hampton. Finally Mr. "Beresford" squared his shoulders, looked around the table defiantly, and without warning, exclaimed:

"Miss Hampton, I love you dearly. Will you marry me?"

"Wh-what," gasped the astonished young woman.

"O, I mean it. I'm in dead earnest. Will you be my wife?"

"Commissioner Hess here can get us married in a trice. Can't you?"

Mr. Hess, astonished at the situation, finally answered in the affirmative.

"Then," said the young man with earnestness, "will you marry me?"

"No I won't," Miss Hampton is said to have replied.

The suitor pleaded but she was not to be moved. Soon afterward the situation growing strained, the party broke up. Commissioner Hess started for Denver a few hours later and Mr. Masson refused to talk about it. Mr. "Beresford" later at the Metropole, said—"Yes, I did propose to Miss Hampton at breakfast, and I would marry her now if she would consent. I wanted Mr. Hess to arrange it, and he would have done so, I think."

"Are you Lord Tyrone, the Marquis of Waterford?"

His face flushed and his hand trembled as he said—"I am the Marquis of Waterford, but I can't imagine how that fact leaked out. I am traveling simply as Francis Beresford. Last September I returned to London from South Africa and was accosted as 'Marquis.' Then to my surprise, I found that my uncle, the former marquis, had died and that I had succeeded to the title. I am now on my way around the world."

CROKER STILL HANGS ON.

He Says He Is Not Going to Resign. Excuse.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Concerning the report that he intended resigning the leadership of Tammany, Richard Croker says:

"I have no intention of resigning the leadership of Tammany hall or of shirking any of the responsibilities of leadership, but I am going to ask the executive committee to relieve me of the routine work of the position."

"I have devoted thirty years of my life to the work of the organization, and I feel the need of a rest. My physician has advised me that I must go out of doors more."

"I shall talk the matter over with members of the executive committee between now and the meeting of the committee on Thursday, and I hope they will agree to name the committee I ask for."

"I only want them to attend to the immense correspondence and relieve me of details so that I will be able to get out more."

KANSAS MUSICAL JUBILEE.

The Second Annual Festival Opens at Hutchinson Today.

Prof. Frederick Archer, Chicago, is general musical director.

This afternoon is the cornet contest, nine entries; vocal duet, eight entries; violin contest, six entries; tenor contest fifteen entries.

BABY RUTH'S AFFLICTION.

Arkansas City "Traveler" Says She Is a Deaf Mute.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kas., May 8.—The Traveler prints the following: A lady now residing in Arkansas City, who was formerly an intimate friend and associate of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, showed a Traveler reporter a letter from her mother who still resides in Buffalo.

This letter stated the time had arrived when the painful and startling fact must be divulged that little Ruth Cleveland is a deaf mute. The fact had been kept a secret because the medical experts and asylum teachers hoped that they would be able to teach her to articulate by the time she was three years of age, but now all hopes have failed.

The letter closed with the remarks: "Thus we are again reminded that the sins of the parents are visited upon following generations."

Jerry Simpson's Condition.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Representative Jerry Simpson passed a more comfortable day than for several days. He is yet however very weak and it will be many months before he will be able to resume his public duties.

DEATH PROMISED

For All Men Who Work in Frick's Works.

There Are Prospects of Bloodshed There Tomorrow.

NOTICES ARE POSTED

Threatening Outside Workmen
Who Go to Work.

Frick is Determined to Open the Works.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 8.—The Frick coke company is making a desperate effort to start the works secretly as they did during the great strike three years ago.

They are collecting men at all their works, who are willing to work and will start one plant at a time. If this is unsuccessful new men will be brought into the region and in that event there will be more rioting. The strikers at Hill Farm are becoming desperate and have posted notices on all the company houses, warning the men to keep away.

The notices are headed by a skull and cross bones, with the following written underneath in large red characters:

"DEATH—ALL MEN WHO GO TO WORK AT HILL FARM TOMORROW,
PREPARE TO MEET YOUR GOD."

The company is determined to resume tomorrow and already have a force of armed deputies on guard. Deputies were busy throughout the region today serving the injunction notices on the leaders to keep Rainey's property and evicting strikers from company houses. There was no trouble but an outbreak is liable to occur at any time.

LYNCHERS ARRESTED.

Strange Proceedings for Texas—Members of a Mob Arrested.

GATESVILLE, Texas, May 8.—Sheriff Hammack today arrested ex-State Representative King and Constable Franklin for complicity in the lynching of Ed Cash a few weeks ago. Cash was the man who was at midnight dragged from the bedside of a sick and pleading wife by masked men and lynched.

There are now eleven alleged lynchers in jail, but the prominence of the last two prisoners has created intense excitement.

HOTEL MEN AT DENVER.

The Three Trainloads Arrive at Their Destination.

DENVER, May 8.—Bright sunshine and bracing air greeted the hundreds of hotel men from New England, New York, Chicago and the middle and eastern states, who arrived in Denver today in three special trains over the Santa Fe road.

The visitors were met at Colorado Springs by reception committees who accompanied them to Denver. The last of the three trains bringing the New York delegation was late arriving at noon, and the opening of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit association's convention was postponed until afternoon.

The United States Hotel Men's association also met this afternoon.

Gen. Howard Succeeds Wanamaker.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Gen. O. O. Howard was today elected president of the National Temperance society to succeed John Wanamaker of Philadelphia. The twenty-ninth anniversary of the society will be celebrated tonight at the Broadway tabernacle. Gen. Howard will preside and make an address. Other speakers will be the Rev. Dr. Cuyler and Rev. L. H. Wyland.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 8.—A Sioux Falls, S. D., special to the Journal says that Senator Kyle is being groomed for the Populist nomination for president.

LOCAL MENTION.

The Huntoon street Republican club, corner of Lincoln, will be addressed by Aaron Jettmore and others.

George Wood, formerly of Topeka, but now connected with the Chicago opera house, is in Topeka visiting his mother and his Topeka friends.

Mr. C. P. W. Nimms, a commercial traveler from Boston, will assist Major and Mrs. Sully in the Salvation Army meeting tonight, at the hall next door to postoffice.

George H. Evans, one of the contractors for the new court house has returned to Topeka from Ft. Worth, partly to see about the long delayed sale of the bonds and partly on account of his rheumatism.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Lizzie Metz, wife of W. M. Metz, were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence, 332 Taylor street. The interment took place in the Topeka cemetery.

Police Sergeant Tim Donovan reported for duty after several days forced retirement. He and officer Blumenstock were chasing a disorderly character around the court house a few nights ago, and Sergeant Donovan in turning a sharp corner fell and broke a rib on his right side. The injury has been a painful but not a serious one.

NO WHISKY AT ALL.

Instead of Dispensary Law, There is Now Absolute Prohibition.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 8.—The dispensary law now gives way to rigid prohibition. The supreme court today declared in announcing its decision in a case from Florence, asking for an injunction to restrain the city council from granting licenses for selling liquor on the ground that there is no law authorizing the granting thereof.

In its decision, the court says that under the law as it now stands, there is no authority vested with the power to grant license for the sale of liquor in this city, and hence the election of the city council in granting such license is void and the court therefore grants the injunction.

The court also refused a motion for the discharge of a man named Brunson, who was arrested in Florence for selling liquor without a license.

The court says that the dispensary act of 1892 having been declared unconstitutional in all its provisions except that forbidding the granting of license to sell liquor after a certain date, the repealing clauses of that law must be regarded as if never enacted, and hence the previous law forbidding the sale of liquor without a license remained in force.

FOUR TERRIBLE DAYS.

A Salina Man Locked in a Freight Car Four Days Without Food or Water.

KANSAS CITY, Kans., May 8.—William A. Sweeney, of Salina, was taken from a box car in the Santa Fe yards this afternoon by a crew of workmen. He was in a pitiable state. To the workmen who found him he told a story of suffering. He had been employed for several months past as a waiter in the Albany hotel in Denver. Last week he became ill with malarial fever and was unable to work. He was short of funds and demanded to be sent home, to Salina, Kansas, where his parents lived. He got into a box car loaded with merchandise and had everything well arranged for the trip, when a trainman passing by locked the end door through which he entered and made him a prisoner.

He was suffering with fever, and in his box car prison, without an ounce of food or a drop of water, he spent four days.

When he was released, he was a prisoner was run in on the sidetrack in the yards at Argentine, and the workmen who came to unload it found Sweeney in a half conscious state, lying on the floor, unable to call for help and almost unable to tell how he came there.

His condition is very critical. His long fast and exposure had enabled the fever to make great progress, and he was so enfeebled that even with the best of treatment it will take him many days to recover. He belongs to a good family and has been well looking at the country. He sent word to his parents acquainting them with his condition.

NEW COMMITTEEMEN.

Several House Committee Changes Are Made Public.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The following changes in the house committees have been announced:

Y.) on invalid pensions; English (Dem., Calif.) committee on railways and canals and expenditures in the treasury department; Isler (Dem., S. C.), committee on railways and canals and committee on militia; O'Neill (Dem., Mo.), committee on patents and committee on improvement in the Mississippi river; Grow (Rep., Pa.), committee on education.

MRS. LEASE FOR CONGRESS.

Such a Thing Within the Range of Possibility.

The latest political report is that Mrs. Lease may be the Populist candidate for Congress in the Seventh district. Jerry Simpson's condition is still serious and it is not probable that he will gain in the race.

There are two candidates, Harry Landis and J. W. Forney who are both state senators. The Populists can not afford to lose either from the senate, which would necessitate a special election and probably a Republican would take the place of either Landis or Forney.

Mrs. Lease is ambitious and when the subject was first broached at a little gathering at the Union Pacific hotel she sent a reply card. She thinks there would be less doubt of her admission to the house if she were elected.

RIOTING CRUSHED OUT

By the Prompt Action of the Governor of Alabama.

ST. LOUIS, May 8.—A Birmingham, Ala., special to the Post-Dispatch says: The prompt action of the governor in calling troops to arms has smothered the incipient riot in the coal district and today at least 200 negro miners were put to work without hindrance.

At Blue Creek the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad company commenced to evict strikers. Six freight cars conveyed the property of 200 white strikers away from the company houses. Those disposed are centralizing at Pratt City where the convict miners are.

Horton Grants a Habeas Corpus.

H. B. Kelly, of Lawrence, appeared before the judge of the supreme court this afternoon and asked for a writ of habeas corpus for George Thomas, convicted of selling liquor in Lawrence and sentenced thirty days in jail. He alleges that the city ordinance under which Thomas was convicted is unconstitutional.

Judge Horton granted a preliminary writ and set the hearing for June 5.

Coxey Investigation Goes Over.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The credentials of Mr. Gear, senator-elect from Iowa, were presented in the senate today by Senator Allison, but question as to the form of the papers being raised, they were laid upon the table. Mr. Allen's resolution to investigate the alleged clubbing of Coxeyites on the capitol grounds went over until tomorrow, and the tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Hoar addressed the senate at length.

BOMBS IN PRISON.

A Desperate Attempt Made by
Two Murderers

Confined in the Michigan State
Penitentiary,

TO BLOW UP PRISON.

Try to Light a Fuse to Dynamite Bomb,

After Seizing and Holding the Guards.

JACKSON, Mich., May 8.—An attempt was made last evening to blow up the prison with dynamite. As the convicts that were locked in the new west cell block were marching to their cells from an evening meeting, three of the convicts, Edward Huntley, sent from Detroit for 20 years for burglary; John De Mann, sent from Grand Rapids for fifteen years for murder in the second degree and Arthur Lawrence sent from Eaton county for ten years for burglary, made a break from the ranks.

One of them seized the guard and another sprang up into a window and attempted to light a fuse connected with a dynamite bomb. The alarm was given and Deputy Northrup and Captain Stone arrived in time to quell this disturbance and the convicts were soon locked in the cells.

The warden says there had been rumors of dynamite in the prison for over a year but no trace of it could be found.

ARTZ IS UNDER A CLOUD.

His War Record Is Called in Question—A Letter From Washington.

It seems that there is a cloud on the war record of ex-Adjutant General Artz. He is a member of the Boys in Blue of this city, an old soldier organization and he frequently addresses gatherings of old soldiers. Frank Holz says: "He claims to have served on Gen. Kilpatrick's staff with a rank of major, and made inquiry at the war department and I received a letter."

The following is the letter received by Mr. Holz:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON CITY, May 4, 1894.

"Mr. Frank Holz, Topeka:

"In reply to your letter of the 30th ultimo received yesterday, I am directed by the secretary of war to inform you that no record has been found showing that an officer named H. H. Artz served on the staff of General Kilpatrick."

"F. C. AINSWORTH,
Colonel U. S. Army, Chief Record and Pension Office."

Holz says that Artz claims to have enlisted in the 34th Illinois, but that no records have been found showing that such a man ever belonged to any Illinois regiment.

Holz is the man who was responsible for the investigation of the affairs of the adjutant general's office which resulted in the resignation of Artz. Holz held the position of ordnance sergeant and at Artz's investigation he was discharged. This blemish on Mr. Artz's war record was scarcely affect his standing in the commonwealth army.

I. N. BAKER'S PLAN.

Intends to Keep a Complete File of All Missouri Newspapers.

I. N. Baker, formerly of this city, who now does business in Kansas City has issued a circular letter addressed to the newspaper publishers of Missouri, in which he proposes to establish a "newspaper library" for the benefit of the newspaper men of the state.

The library is to consist of a regular file of all the papers and periodicals printed in Missouri, the same being contributed for the purpose by the publishers. The idea has been put into successful operation in Kansas, where the files are collected and preserved by the State Historical society, and the collection, including the issues of nearly every paper published in the state from its earliest settlement, is regarded as of the highest value.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MILLS.

Large Attendance of Friends at the Sad Ceremony.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. H. H. Mills were held today at one o'clock at the family residence, 1115 Polk street. Rev. J. W. Bailey, an old friend of the deceased, conducted the services.

There was no music as it was the wish of the deceased that there should be none. The remains were encased in a cedar and copper draped casket. It rested on two draped rests in the back parlor. At the head were two floral figures. The upper one, a wreath, in the center of which was "Grandma." Under this was an exquisite floral pillow bearing the word, "Mother." At the foot of the casket was a harp made of immortelles. Great quantities of cut flowers were sent.

On the casket was a large and beautiful bunch of lilies.

Re. J. W. Bailey delivered a short sermon in which he spoke of the goodness of the deceased, of her earnest work for others and her sweet and christian life.

The following gentlemen who are members of the Presbyterian church, and who are intimate friends of the deceased, acted as pall bearers: Colonel Wm. Tweeddale, D. Holmes, J. F. Semohr, R. B. Gemmel, M. I. Lee and John W. Hard.

In addition to the relatives and friends of this city who were present in great numbers were Mrs. C. S. Alexander of Kansas City, and Charles Gregory of Cottonwood Falls.

The remains were taken to the 2:40 Santa Fe train and will be interred at Howell, Mich. H. H. Mills, husband of the deceased, W. W. Mills and daughter, Arthur Mills, and Miss Hattie Mills accompanied the remains to Howell.

BREIDENTHAL'S ACTION.

Combats the Attempt to Force Gold Payments From Western Banks.

Bank Commissioner Breidenthal has issued the call for the second quarterly statement of the condition of the banks of the state.

He has something to say about the gold payment clause of contracts. This statement is made in the circular: "I am informed that New York banks require banks who borrow of them to sign notes payable in gold. In this connection I desire to call your attention to chapter 99 of the laws of Kansas of 1893, and request that hereafter all banks under control of this department refrain from signing any note or other obligation payable in anything other than lawful money of the United States."

The section of the law referred to reads: "That from and after the passage of this act all obligations of debt, judgments or executions stated in terms of dollars and to be paid in money, if not dischargeable in United States legal tender notes, shall be payable in either the standard silver or gold coins authorized by the congress of the United States, all stipulations in the contract to the contrary notwithstanding."

Mr. Breidenthal says that the clause is to call the attention of the banks to the sentiment of the people in Kansas, and he will not permit banks under his jurisdiction to make contracts which may jeopardize the interest of depositors. He thinks that the gold clause is being inserted on the theory that gold will go to a premium.

THEY NEED WATCHING

Tom Reed Says Senate Tariff Committee Had "Back Stairs" Influence.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Mr. Reed of Maine, authorizes the following concerning the tariff amendments made public today:

"The presentation by the senate finance committee of 81 pages of amendments, apparently more than 400 in number, is a delicate compliment to Mr. Wilson and the house of representatives. It virtually says that the house bill was right except on four or five hundred points and that the senate committee after a month's work finds 400 mistakes in its own bill."

"This will hardly tend to restore confidence in the country, especially as every amendment smacks of either prior ignorance, or present barter. It seems impossible that a document so constructed as to show traffic in every item should be permitted to see daylight in one batch. It would have been wiser to have let the matter come before the country, item by item, rather than aggregate the dreadful total in one batch."

"Evidently it will be the duty of the senate to investigate these proposed amendments; for when a committee of finance refuses hearings because it knows intuitively all things, but finds by some kind of back-stairs influence that it has made four hundred mistakes, it is evident the committee will bear watching."

BREWER TO BE HERE.

He Will Speak in Topeka at the Bar Meeting.

The executive committee of the State Bar association is holding a meeting in the supreme court room this afternoon, arranging the programme for the annual meeting of the association next January. Justice David J. Brewer, of the United States supreme court, has consented to deliver the annual address.

Smallpox on Vessels.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The Marine hospital service put into operation today a system of inspection, which includes all steam vessels leaving from Chicago. Every vessel will be boarded, its crew inspected, and no craft will be permitted to clear without a bill of health. The action is taken because of the prevalence of smallpox in this city.

Brickmakers' Strike Off.
